

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON COMMENCEMENT

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

MONDAY, JUNE 16, 2025

Welcome graduates, family members, and friends,

Today is a very special day, one that marks an important professional and personal milestone. On behalf of all College of Education faculty and staff, it is my sincere pleasure to welcome you as we honor and acknowledge our graduating students' achievements.

Graduates, we live in a world where change is constant and our ability to embrace the challenges of uncertainty becomes our superpower. Your strength and resilience will separate you from the pack. Continue to ask questions, be curious, and listen. Create space to process and reflect. You matter, and as a College of Education Duck, you are a difference maker.

Today marks the addition of more than 500 graduates who will help improve the lives of children, families, and communities in this state, throughout the nation, and around the world. Your potential is unlimited, as is your ability to make a difference in this world.

Congratulations and Go Ducks!

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Laura Lee McIntyre". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Laura" being the most prominent.

Laura Lee McIntyre, PhD, BCBA-D
Dean and Castle-McIntosh-Knight Professor

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

The College of Education, home to fourteen undergraduate, masters, and doctoral degree programs, is the UO's highest-ranking and largest research-contributing college, known for its innovative teaching and research in special education, counseling psychology, human services, education, and prevention science. The special education program has been recognized as number three in the nation for 25 years running by U.S. News & World Report.

Fourteen research and outreach units operate under the auspices of the college where funded research per faculty member is consistently among the highest in the nation. More than forty faculty-developed assessment tools, therapeutic methods, and curricula are used with more than 97 percent of Oregon children each day, in more than 30,000 schools in the US, and numerous countries and languages around the world.

HONORING NATIVE PEOPLES AND LANDS

The University of Oregon is located on Kalapuya Ilihi, the traditional indigenous homeland of the Kalapuya people. Following treaties between 1851 and 1855, Kalapuya people were dispossessed of their indigenous homeland by the United States government and forcibly removed to the Coast Reservation in Western Oregon. Today, descendants are citizens of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon and the Confederated Tribes of the Siletz Indians of Oregon, and continue to make important contributions in their communities, at UO, and across the land we now refer to as Oregon.

We express our respect for all federally recognized tribal nations of Oregon. This includes the Burns Paiute Tribe; the Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians; the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon; the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon; the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation; the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs; the Coquille Indian Tribe; the Cow Creek Band of Umpqua Tribe of Indians; and the Klamath Tribes. We also express our respect for all other displaced Indigenous peoples who call Oregon home.
