Please remain seated throughout the recessional. The audience will be invited to exit when all of the graduates have left Matthew Knight Arena.

Thank you for your cooperation.

A NOTE FROM THE DEAN

CONGRATULATIONS, CLASS OF 2025!

Today marks the pinnacle of your hard work and dedication—countless hours spent studying, collaborating, researching, completing projects, and forging connections with your peers, professors, staff, and mentors. It has not been easy for any of you. No doubt there were moments when you felt exhausted, challenged, and frustrated. But you persevered and became a better person because you overcame those struggles.

So take a moment to pause, reflect on your journey, and give yourself the recognition you truly deserve. You've earned every bit of this celebration.

This day is also about honoring those who have supported you throughout your academic path—your instructors, advisors, family members, and the many individuals who stood by you with encouragement and guidance. Here's a little truth: They've been cheering you on all the way, proud of your tenacity and inspired by your growth. Your commitment has not gone unnoticed, and we are genuinely thrilled to celebrate with you.

As you move forward, you'll come to appreciate how truly special the experiences and relationships you've built here are. You joined clubs, went on school trips, worked on publications, and took classes that took you outside the classroom to practice your craft in real-world settings. These will be the unforgettable memories that will stay with you forever.

The SOJC community is remarkable—we attract exceptional individuals and send them off into the world to do great things. Being a Duck means being part of a unique and accomplished family for life, and I'm proud to welcome you into it.

You're more than ready for what comes next. Go out and use your talents to tell meaningful stories, develop data-informed strategies and creative campaigns, craft impactful messages, and be the voice that drives change. And then share your insights and skills with the next generation. That's how you can help build a better world.

On behalf of the entire faculty and staff at the UO School of Journalism and Communication (SOJC), thank you for allowing us to be a part of this important milestone in your life.

RECOGNITIONS AND AWARDS

SOJC Honors Program

The SOJC Honors Program is designed to give advanced students the opportunity to develop analytic, critical-thinking, and research skills in a small-group, discussion-oriented setting. The program contributes to preexisting major requirements and encourages the development of a small, multidisciplinary community of budding scholars from within the School of Journalism and Communication.

Ceremony Guidelines

We ask that our graduates and audience members maintain reasonable and appropriate behavior at all times during the ceremony to ensure it is enjoyable for all participants. Items that may disturb others are not allowed, including noisemakers, air horns, confetti poppers, and balloons. The staff of Matthew Knight Arena and the UO School of Journalism and Communication reserve the right to relocate or remove anyone who is creating a disturbance during the ceremony.

Note to Attendees

Please remain in the arena for the duration of the ceremony, even after you or your graduate receive a diploma cover, to avoid disrupting the event, and out of respect for your fellow graduates and their guests.

Photography

Professional photographers will take photos of the graduates as they receive their diploma covers. Graduates will receive an email to their @uoregon email address from GradImages to order photos online 48 hours after today's ceremony. Per fire marshal restrictions, guests are not permitted on the floor of Matthew Knight Arena. Please remain seated when taking photos. We encourage you to take advantage of the many beautiful backdrops around campus for capturing your graduation day memories. The School of Journalism and Communication also has a photographer taking candid photos throughout the ceremony. These photos will be made available on the SOJC Flickr page: flickr.com/photos/uo-sojc/albums

HONORING NATIVE PEOPLES AND LANDS

The University of Oregon is located on Kalapuya Ilihi, the traditional indigenous homeland of the Kalapuya people. Following treaties between 1851 and 1855, Kalapuya people were dispossessed of their indigenous homeland by the United States government and forcibly removed to the Coast Reservation in Western Oregon. Today, descendants are citizens of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon and the Confederated Tribes of the Siletz Indians of Oregon, and continue to make important contributions in their communities, at UO, and across the land we now refer to as Oregon.

We express our respect for all federally recognized tribal nations of Oregon. This includes the Burns Paiute Tribe; the Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians; the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon; the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon; the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation; the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs; the Coquille Indian Tribe; the Cow Creek Band of Umpqua Tribe of Indians; and the Klamath Tribes. We also express our respect for all other displaced Indigenous peoples who call Oregon home.
