Commencement Ceremony

TUESDAY, JUNE 20, 2023 - 4:00 P.M
KNIGHT LIBRARY SOUTH LAWN

Welcome and Opening Comments

Adrian Parr

Dean, College of Design

Remarks

Jean Carroon

Ellis F. Lawrence Medalist

Jean Carroon, FAIA, BA '79, MArch '86, is the commencement speaker and 2023 Ellis F. Lawrence Medalist. Jean is a preservation architect, author, educator, and advocate for the role of existing buildings and heritage in creating a vibrant, healthy, and equitable world. She is a principal at Goody Clancy, a Boston-based design firm. She is receiving this honor in recognition of her outstanding leadership to advance sustainability through building preservation, fostering humane values in the built environment, prioritizing the intersection of building stewardship and heritage, and transforming the field through education and mentorship.

College of Design

Mission

The College of Design is dedicated to advancing the understanding, value, and quality of visual culture and the built, natural, and social environments through excellent and distinctive teaching, research, and creative endeavors. Grounded in a unique multidisciplinary structure, the college is a diverse, collaborative learning community committed to enhancing the lives of individuals and communities through pursuits that stem from intellectual curiosity, critical thinking, and broad inquiry, rooted in the interrelatedness of theory, history, and practice.

In support of this mission, the College of Design affirms the following values:

Excellence

Supporting and celebrating a culture that promotes rigor, encourages risk-taking, and challenges standards in creating, composing, and presenting ideas

Open Discourse

Fostering the open exchange and critique of ideas in an environment that welcomes a diversity of views

Inclusiveness

Actively encouraging the presence and participation of individuals with differing backgrounds, experiences, and worldviews

Cooperation

Working together in shared efforts to teach, learn, understand, and create interdisciplinary experiences employing interdisciplinary approaches to expand our perspectives and enrich our teaching, research, and creative practice

Responsibility

Recognizing our accountability for the impact of our actions on environmental, social, and cultural systems

HONORING NATIVE PEOPLES AND LANDS

The University of Oregon is located on Kalapuya Ilihi, the traditional homeland of the Kalapuya people. Following treaties between 1851 and 1855, Kalapuya people were dispossessed of their indigenous homeland by the United States government and forcibly removed to the Coast Reservation in Western Oregon. Today, descendants are citizens of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon and the Confederated Tribes of the Siletz Indians of Oregon, and continue to make important contributions in their communities, at the UO, across the land we now refer to as Oregon, and around the world.
