UNIVERSITY OF OREGON COMMENCEMENT

College of Design

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON COLLEGE OF DESIGN

Commencement Ceremony

SATURDAY, JUNE 12, 2021

College of Design

A unique ecosystem, the College of Design comprises not only creative practitioners—artists, architects, and designers—but also social scientists, humanities scholars, engineers, economists, biologists, planners, and policymakers. Using diverse methods, we are engaging in critical questions and tackling complex problems.

Through the Department of the History of Art & Architecture, the School of Art + Design, the School of Architecture & Environment, and the School of Planning, Public Policy and Management, we provide professional education for nearly 30 undergraduate and graduate degree programs in both Eugene and at the University of Oregon Portland.

Recorded Webcast Ceremonies

2021 College of Design Commencement Ceremonies can be found at <https://commencement.uoregon.edu/activities-and-ceremonies>.

Degree Candidates

The students whose names are listed here were considered eligible to participate in the commencement ceremony at the time this program was created. This is not an official degree list. Degrees and diplomas are awarded to those candidates who have successfully completed all departmental and University of Oregon degree requirements.

Welcome

Congratulations, Class of 2021 graduates and families!

What a magnificent achievement graduation represents and celebrates. The Class of 2021 is without doubt resilient and determined. Qualities, that when combined with a degree from the College of Design at the University of Oregon, will take you far in life. I applaud each and every one of you for the extraordinary resolve and commitment you have shown to completing your studies.

I also want to thank your family, friends, and loved ones who have been by your side and supported you in your studies.

A degree from the rich diversity of programs on offer in the College of Design not only prepares you for professional life, it equips you with critical thinking skills and encourages you to put your talents to work to make the world a better place. In this way your degree has deepened your ethical compass and imaginative sensibilities, because in the absence of imagination, neither compassion nor understanding can flourish.

You arrived at the University of Oregon in pursuit of a degree. You have achieved that and so much more. These past few years with us you have explored, experimented, and enriched your intellect and curiosity. You have made friendships that will last a lifetime. You have discovered parts of yourself that you probably never knew existed. You have changed. But also remember—you have changed us. Since you came into our lives, we have become better teachers, researchers, thinkers, practitioners, and leaders because of you. Thank you for this magnificent gift you have bestowed on us.

I am excited for you as you embark on this next chapter in your lives. I look forward to following your continuing successes and learning more about the contributions you will make. Remember, you can always call the College of Design at the University of Oregon home. So please, stay in touch.

Enjoy this special day and make the most of what is yet to come. We are so proud of you!

COLLEGE OF DESIGN

Mission

The College of Design is dedicated to advancing the understanding, value, and quality of visual culture and the built, natural, and social environments through excellent and distinctive teaching, research, and creative endeavors. Grounded in a unique multidisciplinary structure, the college is a diverse, collaborative learning community committed to enhancing the lives of individuals and communities through pursuits that stem from intellectual curiosity, critical thinking, and broad inquiry, rooted in the interrelatedness of theory, history, and practice.

In support of this mission, the College of Design affirms the following values:

Excellence

Supporting and celebrating a culture that promotes rigor, encourages risk taking, and challenges standards in creating, composing, and presenting ideas

Open Discourse

Fostering the open exchange and critique of ideas in an environment that welcomes a diversity of views

Inclusiveness

Actively encouraging the presence and participation of individuals with differing backgrounds, experiences, and worldviews

Cooperation

Working together in shared efforts to teach, learn, understand, and create

Interdisciplinary Experience

Employing multiple disciplines to expand our perspectives and enrich our teaching, research, and creative practice

Responsibility

Recognizing our accountability for the impact of our actions on environmental, social, and cultural systems

HONORING NATIVE PEOPLES AND LANDS

The University of Oregon is located on Kalapuya ilihl, the traditional indigenous homeland of the Kalapuya people. Following treaties between 1851 and 1855, Kalapuya people were dispossessed of their indigenous homeland by the United States government and forcibly removed to the Coast Reservation in Western Oregon. Today, Kalapuya descendants are primarily citizens of the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde and the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians, and they continue to make important contributions to their communities, to the UO, to Oregon, and to the world.

In following the Indigenous protocol of acknowledging the original people of the land we occupy, we also extend our respect to the nine federally recognized Indigenous nations of Oregon: the Burns Paiute Tribe, the Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians, the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde, the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians, the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation, the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, the Coquille Indian Tribe, the Cow Creek Band of Umpqua Tribe of Indians, and the Klamath Tribes. We express our respect to the many more tribes who have ancestral connections to this territory, as well as to all other displaced Indigenous peoples who call Oregon home.
